S
020.978
L14m
V.2
1967

Montana State Library
3 0864 1004 2001 0

Date Due

DEC	7 1964

PRINTED IN U.S.A. CAT. NO. 23 231

STATE DOCUMENTS

Live With Books

MONTANA NEWSLETTER

MONTANA STATE LIBRARY

930 EAST LYNDALE AVENUE TELEPHONE 442-3260, EXTENSION 304 HELENA, MONTANA 59601

Volume 2 December 1966, January 1967 No. 1

TIME FOR ACTION arrived last week for Margaret Warden, Legislative Chairman for the Montana Library Association, when she visited Helena. She talked with many legislators who received her graciously, and who had been briefed very effectively on library needs by Legislative Committee members before arriving for the current session. She discussed the proposed budget for the State Library and the three library bills, which were introduced on January 12th. Senate Bill No. 39, the Act concerning public libraries, Senate Bill No. 40, Distribution of State Documents and Senate Bill No. 41, Interstate Library Compacts were sponsored by Senators Bertsche, Rehberg, Cotton, Dussault and Rasmussen. The warm thanks of all librarians and friends of the library go to Mrs. Warden, her co-chairman, Shirley Hake, and the members of the Legislative Committee for a wonderful job. A list of committee members is enclosed.

MARGARET CAMM, Special Services Librarian at the State Library, and President of the Montana Library Association, has resigned to accept a position as librarian at Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho. Margie's many friends wish her the best of luck in her new job, and special thanks to her from the State Library Staff for her unflagging assistance during the move from Missoula to Helena. She will continue as President of the Montana Library Association.

A SPRING HAPPENING that should not be missed will be the MLA meeting with the Idaho and Wyoming State Library Associations in Jackson, Wyoming on May 4th, 5th and 6th. The MLA Executive Board met at the State Library on January 7th, and their exciting plans for this meeting promise an exceptionally good program with excellent speakers.

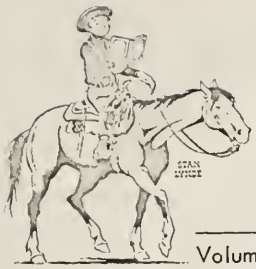
RECENT GRADUATE, Marian Anhalt, has joined the staff of the Great Falls Public Library as children's librarian. Miss Anhalt has been a Montana State Library scholarship student at the University of Minnesota and has earned a master degree in library science.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK CHAIRMAN, Mrs. Leo Graybill, held an organizational meeting of the State Committee on December 16th in Great Falls. Plans for the Week, April 16-22, are under way, and posters, brochures and other material will soon be available, as well as suggestions for participation from the State Committee.

MID-WINTER ALA MEETING in New Orleans was held January 9-14, 1967. Attending from Montana were Mrs. Alma Jacobs, member of the Executive Board of ALA, Mrs. A.O. Pemberton, National Library Week Chairman for ALTA, Earle Thompson, Dean of Libraries and Larry Hodges, University of Montana.

MONTANIANA: The Frederic Remington book by Harold McCracken has been published by Doubleday for $19.95. The book includes nearly 400 of Remington's finest paintings, drawings, and works of sculpture with an explanatory text by the author. Leslie A. Fiedler's new book, The last Jew in America, has been published by Stein and Day at $4.95. An account of the lives of seven pioneer women who resided in Virginia City and Bannock during the reign of the Vigilantes, entitled Vigilant woman, by Virginia Rowe Towle is available for $6.00, publisher, A.S. Barnes and Co., Inc. The Snake tree, published by The World Publishing Co. at $3.50 is by Glen Rounds who grew up on a horse ranch in the Powder River country of Montana. It is a series of essays about nature during the seasons of the year.

MONTANA STATE LIBRARY
930 East Lyndale Avenue
Helena, Montana 59601



NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

in Montana

April 16-22, 1967

Volume 2 February and March 1967 No. 2

LIBRARY LEGISLATION was highly successful with the 40th Legislative Assembly. The three library bills endorsed by the Montana Library Association were passed with very few changes and a $25,000 increase in the budget for the State Library was approved. To hard-working Margaret Warden and her very effective Legislative Committee go the thanks and gratitude of all librarians, trustees and library friends in the State. The State Library will be updating Library Laws of Montana with a reprinting in the near future.

TWO WINNERS of the American Library Association Newbery and Caldecott Awards were named recently. Irene Hunt, author of Up a Road Slowly, and Evaline Ness, author and illustrator of Sam, Bangs, & Moonshine, will receive the medals on June 27th during the annual ALA conference in San Francisco.

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY at Bozeman has received a generous grant from the Hill Family Foundation, St. Paul, Minnesota, to microfilm the Yellowstone Park archives. The amount is approximately $1,950.00.

A MEETING IN DENVER, April 18-22, will bring Library Service Branch personnel and librarians of Region VIII together to discuss state planning procedures for future implementation of all Titles of the Library Services and Construction Act. Special attention will be given to the new titles which provide for inter-library cooperation, service to institutions and service to the physically handicapped.

NEED A RIDE TO JACKSON? The Idaho Library Association has arranged for a bus from Coeur d'Alene to Jackson for the convention. This will be going through Missoula at midnight on May 3rd and there are seats available. It is scheduled to leave Jackson for the return trip after the banquet on May 6th. The round-trip fare is $35.00 and if you would like additional information, check with the State Library in Helena.

THE YOUNG READER'S CHOICE AWARDS BREAKFAST was highlighted by a tape sent by Sterling North, the award winner for 1966. This has been made available in the Pacific Northwest Library Association area and may be obtained by contacting the State Library.

"TITLE I...OFF AND RUNNING", is a 27 minute filmstrip and tape, concerning Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 - what it is, and what it is doing for educationally-deprived youngsters throughout the nation. Several copies are available at the State Library for loan.

THREE SCHOOL SYSTEMS have been selected to share $5,000 as national winners of Encyclopaedia Britannica's 1967 School Library Awards. First place and $2,500 cash award winner is the Cleveland, Ohio, Public Schools. East Baton Rouge Parish Schools, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, second place winner, will receive $1,500. Cherry Creek School District No. 5, Englewood, Colorado, won third place and $1,000.

DATES TO REMEMBER - May 4-6, 1967 - Tri-State Conference in Jackson, Wyoming.

MONTANA NEWSLETTER

MONTANA STATE LIBRARY

930 EAST LYNDALE AVENUE TELEPHONE 442-3260, EXTENSION 304 HELENA, MONTANA 59601

Volume 2 April 1967 No. 3

NEW LIBRARY FOR BILLINGS was assured when the city voted in favor of a bond issue in the amount of $996,500 in the April 4th election. This will provide funds for the purchase of a large building in a downtown location which is ideally suited for library purposes.

ATTENTION SCHOOL LIBRARIANS Mrs. Peggy Gadbow, a member of the AASL Advisory Committee on the Britannica School Library Awards, urges you to bring to Jackson any publicity that you may have on your school program.

A VERNE DUSENBERRY MEMORIAL INDIAN ROOM has been proposed by his many friends for the new Museum of the Rockies which is being built on the Montana State University campus at Bozeman. The Committee members are Merrill G. Burlingame, John F. M. Travis, John P. Parker and Harriette E. Cushman, Chairman. Anyone wishing to subscribe to this memorial for Dr. Dusenberry may send the contribution to the Museum of the Rockies, P. O. Box 486, Bozeman, Montana --- Attention: Miss Harriette E. Cushman.

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY will be losing its Acquisitions Librarian, Mrs. Constance Piccioni, when she resigns August 1st to take a new position with the Washington State Library in Olympia. Special thanks go to Mrs. Piccioni for her good work with the Montana Student Librarians.

"MEETING THE CHALLENGE OF THE LATER YEARS" is the theme for this year's Senior Citizens' Month, May 1967. Materials for use in observing this month are being sent to public libraries in communities with a population of 35,000 and above. Additional copies of the promotional material may be obtained from: Administration on Aging, Mrs. W. Q. Collins, Coordinator, Senior Citizens' Month; Department of Health, Education, and Welfare; 330 Independence Avenue, SW; Washington, DC.

THE AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION has announced the selection of Mansell Information/Publishing Limited, a component of Universal Printers Limited, to publish in book form the National Union Catalog of publications with imprints of 1955 and earlier. This catalog, which now exists only as a file of more than 16 million cards at the Library of Congress, shows the combined library holdings of more than 2,000 libraries in the United States and Canada. As such it is a bibliographic tool of primary importance to scholars and libraries throughout the world.

LESLIE HEATHCOTE visited the State Library on April 26th to confer on the 20 year Index of Montana Libraries.

MONTANIANA: Beryl Holgren has written a biography of a Lincoln County sheriff with the collaboration of his widow, Victoria Baney. Frank Baney: forty years a Montana law enforcer is published by Vantage Press at $4.50. Faint the trumpet sounds by John Upton Terrell and Colonel George Walton published by David McKay Co. at $6.95 is the story of Major Reno and his controversial role in the Battle of the Little Big Horn. The Minnesota Historical Society has published Ho! for the gold fields. Edited by Helen McCann White, this is the emigrants own stories of the eight wagon trains which set out from Minnesota in 1860's for the gold fields in the area that became Montana. It is priced at $8.50.

TRI-STATE LIBRARY ASSOCIATIONS MEETING, JACKSON, WYOMING, MAY 4, 5, and 6, 1967

ALA CONFERENCE - SAN FRANCISCO, JUNE 25 - JULY 1, 1967

Live With Books

MONTANA NEWSLETTER

MONTANA STATE LIBRARY

930 EAST LYNDALE AVENUE TELEPHONE 442-3260, EXTENSION 304 HELENA, MONTANA 59601

Volume 2 May 1967 No. 4

LIBRARIES OF TOMORROW was the theme of the annual conference of the Montana Student Librarians in Bozeman on April 29th. Mrs. Lloyd Berg, Librarian, Bozeman Senior High School and Larry Hodges, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, University of Montana discussed the new machines and equipment available for libraries. New officers elected for the coming year were: President, Chris Gower, Rosary High School, Bozeman; Vice-President, Lynette Barkell, Belgrade; Treasurer, Marie Bonine, Hysham; Secretary, Velda Shank, Great Falls Central; Historian, Mary Ina Richard, Ft. Benton. A later meeting of the Student Librarians Executive Board was held in Helena at the State Library on May 20, 1967.

RENDEZVOUS AT JACKSON, WYOMING for Montana, Idaho and Wyoming librarians provided a fine opportunity to meet and discuss mutual interests. This first Tri-State Library Associations Conference was well attended with over 300 present, and the program was filled by excellent speakers and stimulating panel discussions. Congratulations to the Wyoming Library Association for a superb job.

MEMBERS OF THE LIBRARY DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE of the Montana Library Association plan a meeting at the State Library in Helena on June 9th to consider plans under the new titles of LSCA and to review progress with existing programs.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA SUMMER WORKSHOP, "Literature for Young Adults", conducted by Margaret Edwards, is scheduled for July 10-19, 1967. Librarians are anticipating this chance to share Mrs. Edwards's enthusiastic interest in books and young people. We are pleased to report that over 20 Montana public librarians and five Wyoming public librarians are planning to attend.

"VACATION READERS GO EVERYWHERE" is the theme for the fourth annual Children's Book Council Vacation Reading Program. Streamers, Vacation Reading Club Membership cards and "My Reading Record" folders are just some of the attractive materials designed to stimulate summer reading for children. All of the materials or a order form listing these items are available from the Children's Book Council, 175 Fifth Avenue, New York 10010.

YOUNG READER'S CHOICE AWARD RESULTS for 1967 have been announced. Children in Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and the Province of British Columbia have voted CHITTY-CHITTY-BANG-BANG by Ian Fleming the book of their choice.

MONTANIANA: Custer's gold by Donald Jackson is the story of the United States cavalry expedition in 1874 and its effect on relations with the Sioux. It is published by Yale University Press at $5.00. The Montana Historical Society in association with the Eugene E. Wilson Collection, U.S. Naval Academy Library has published Hawks and doves in the Nez Perce war of 1877 by Eugene Tallmadge Wilson and Eugene Edward Wilson. The book is priced at $1.00 and is the recollections of Eugene Tallmadge Wilson who served briefly as a civilian volunteer in the forces of General O.O. Howard as the Nez Perce sought to escape the army in 1877. Ruth O. Carlson Zell, a Montana resident, has written a book of verse entitled, Prairie wildflowers, which is published by Exposition Press for $3.50. The white peril by Cliff Faulknor is a juvenile about a reconnaissance expedition of Blackfeet to learn about the strength of the white man and has been published by Little, Brown and Company for $3.95. Another juvenile is Custer's last stand. This is the story of the battle of the Little Big Horn and is published by Chilton Books at $3.95.

DATES TO REMEMBER

ALA Conference - June 25th - July 1st, 1967 San Francisco
PNLA Conference - August 23rd - 25th, 1967 Coeur d'Alene

Live With Books

MONTANA NEWSLETTER

MONTANA STATE LIBRARY

930 EAST LYNDALE AVENUE TELEPHONE 442-3260, EXTENSION 304 HELENA, MONTANA 59601

Volume 2 September 1967 No. 5

THE PRESIDENT'S ADVISORY COMMISSION on Libraries is holding a public hearing in Great Falls on September 11th. Montana is one of 12 states that has been chosen as a locale for these meetings. The purpose is to give the Advisory Commission an opportunity to listen to library users throughout the state express their ideas on the present status and future needs of their local libraries. The open meeting will be at the Civic Center from 10 a.m. on.

"TAKE OFF WITH BOOKS" is the theme of the 48th annual celebration of National Children's Book Week (October 29 - November 4, 1967). The Children's Book Council, headquarters for Book Week, has prepared display and promotion materials created by famous children's book illustrators and designers. The deadline for ordering Book Week materials is September 30 and order blanks may be obtained from: The Children's Book Council, Inc., 175 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10010.

RETIRING LIBRARIANS, Mildred Grawe, Flathead County Library and Mable Engelter, Whitefish Public Library ended many years of dedicated service this past summer. Mrs. Mabel Brewer, recent graduate of the University of Washington School of Librarianship, replaced Mrs. Grawe and Mrs. Elizabeth Schafer assumes the duties of librarian in Whitefish in September.

ALA MEMBERSHIP DAY will be observed October 17, 1967 with emphasis on the public library: its staff, trustees, friends and the library's institutional membership. Brochures, reprints, posters and membership applications for the observance of this day are available free from: ALA, Membership Promotion Office, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, Illinois 60611.

" A HALT IN THE WOODS", a painting by Arthur F. Tait, is believed to be in one of the public libraries in Montana. Mr. Warder H. Cadbury, who is preparing a biography and checklist of Mr. Tait, is trying to locate this painting and his only clue comes from an article in The American Antiques Collector which mentions that Mr. J.W. Young, a dealer from Chicago, sold this painting to a public library in Montana. Mr. Cadbury would appreciate public librarians taking a quick look at their walls or storage space, or in any likely institutions such as museums in their towns. If the painting is located he can be reached at: 135 Jay Street, Albany, New York 12210.

A NEW AWARD has been established by the American Association of School Librarians and a department of the National Education Association for Distinguished Library Service For School Administrators. This award will be in the form of a citation and will be presented for the first time at the joint AASL-NEA Program in July 1968 at the Annual Convention of the National Education Association at Dallas, Texas. The award is to be made annually to a person directly responsible for a school or group of schools who has made a unique contribution toward furthering the role of the library and its development in elementary and or secondary education. As many as three meritorious school administrators may be cited each year. All state and national school library organizations and state and national education organizations are invited to submit candidates no later than December 1, 1967. Nominations must be accompanied by a biographical sketch and supporting professional data to establish the merit of the candidate and should be sent to: Professor Rachael W. DeAngelo, Chairman, AASL Committee on Education Citations, Graduate School of Library Studies, University of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii 96822.

WORKING TOGETHER proved an apt theme for the PNLA Conference at Coeur d'Alene, August 23-25th. Librarians from all over the Northwest gathered at this lovely resort for a stimulating program and Montana was well represented with approximately 20 attending. Alice McClain is to be congratulated.

THE 1967 NATIONAL MEDAL FOR LITERATURE has been awarded to W. H. Auden. This award is sponsored by the National Book Committee and is conferred annually to honor a living American author for his total contribution to American literature. The prize, consisting of a commemorative bronze medal and $5,000, will be presented to Mr. Auden at a ceremony this fall by William I. Nichols, chairman of the National Book Committee.

25 LEADING MEDICAL LIBRARIANS and health science faculty will meet at the University of Washington for a Medical Library Education Conference September 10, 11 and 12. The conference, first of its kind, will be a pilot study to examine the needs and requirements of medical librarianship education now and in the future from the standpoint of curriculum, resources, facilities and personnel.

NEW QUARTERS FOR THE SUNBURST BRANCH LIBRARY have been provided in the newly renovated building that was formerly the Pythian Theatre. The large well lighted room is newly furnished and an attractive directors' room, which is available for special use by library patrons, opens from the library. Librarian Dorothy Springer reports that circulation has tripled during the three weeks that the library has been open in its new location.

MONTANIANA: Let's go to a fish hatchery by Marion T. Place, a former Montanan, is a juvenile published by G.P. Putnam's Sons for $1.97. A chapter about Montana by William H. Hornby appears in Fodor-Shell Travel Guides U.S.A., The Rockies and plains. This is published by David McKay Co., Inc. for $3.95. Jim Beckwourth, Negro mountain man, a juvenile by Harold W. Felton, is the story of an early trapper in Montana. Published by Dodd, Mead & Co., it sells for $3.50. A descriptive catalogue of Charles M. Russell's paintings, drawings and sculpture in the Amon G. Carter collection has been published by the University of Texas Press. Entitled, Charles M. Russell, by Frederic G. Renner, it is priced at $17.50. United States Senator Lee Metcalf and Vic Reinemer have written a study of the power utilities entitled Overcharge. The publisher is David McKay Co., Inc. and the price is $5.95. The author of The power of the dog, Thomas Savage, attended the University of Montana and has used a Montana ranch as the setting for this novel. The cost is $5.95 and the publisher is Little Brown and Co. Ponderosa Publishers, St. Ignatius, has published The encyclopedia of judging and exhibiting floriculture and flora artistry by Esther Veramae Hamel who lives there. The author has had years of judging experience on the National Council of State Garden Clubs. The cost of the book is $7.95. Edmund Christopherson's Adventure among the glaciers has been published by Earthquake Press, 919 Woodford Street, Missoula for $3.95. Mountain men, a juvenile about the trappers of the great fur-trading era, 1822-1843, is by Don Berry, illustrated by Glen Dines. The publisher is The Macmillan Co. and the cost is $3.44. Della Tyler Key has written the story of General George A. Custer and his wife which emphasizes the man himself rather than military exploits. The title is Pastures in the sun and the price is $6.25. The biblical flood and the ice epoch by Donald Wesley Patten has been published by Pacific Meridian Publishing Co., Seattle for $7.50. The author, a geographer by training, was born in Conrad and attended the University of Montana. A memoir including an account of homesteading and farm life in Montana has been written by Margaret Jensen assisted by Leila Williams. The publisher is Big Mountain Press, Denver and the cost is $2.00. Napi's lookout, the story of Willow Rounds by Dorothy Hamaker, is a history of the early settlers in an area used first by the Blackfeet as a winter camp. It is printed by Thomas Printing, Kalispell for $3.00. Donald L. Peters, head guidance counselor in Billings, is the author of For thinking teens, price $4.00 and Homeroom guidance activities, price $3.78. This is a handbook for a three year homeroom guidance activities program based on a program originating in the junior high school in Billings. The publisher is the Richards Rosen Press.

THURBER &
HELENA

Live With Books

MONTANA NEWSLETTER

MONTANA STATE LIBRARY

930 EAST LYNDALE AVENUE TELEPHONE 442-3260, EXTENSION 304 HELENA, MONTANA 59601

Volume 2 October 1967 No. 6

THE NEW STATE LIBRARY ADVISORY COUNCIL met in Helena on October 2nd at the State Library. The Council, which was appointed by the State Library Commission, elected Mr. William Bertsche Chairman. The group explored ideas and programs which could be implemented under Interlibrary Cooperation, Service to State Institutions and Service to the Physically Handicapped. Others serving are Mr. John Cross, Glendive, Miss Marie Mastorovich, Helena, Mr. Tony Persha, Red Lodge, Mr. Whitney Smith, Whitefish, Mr. Earle Thompson, Missoula and Mrs. Max Thornton, Pryor Star Route, Billings.

"WHAT MOD STUDENT LIBRARIANS ACCENTUATE" is the theme of the Western Montana Student Librarians Association meeting which will be held at Florence, November 4, 1967. Sharing the program will be Vivian Koch, a library science student at the University of Montana, who has just returned from a trip to Europe and Herb Carson, director of Special Education in the Missoula Schools.

DEDICATION DATE for the new Great Falls Public Library is November 12, 1967. Principal speaker for the ceremonies will be Mr. Lew Callaway, publisher of Newsweek Magazine.

PLANNING FOR NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK will get under way when the State Committee holds its organizational meeting at the Northern Hotel in Billings on October 19, 1967. Mrs. H.D. Harlowe, Miles City, who is Chairman, will preside. The theme for the Week is, "Be All You Can Be - Read".

CHANGES ON THE LIBRARY SCENE: Mrs. Ann Culbertson has resigned from the Roosevelt County Library in Wolf Point and Mrs. Mary Hveem is acting librarian there. Mrs. Catherine O'Brien is retiring from the Blaine County Library in Chinook. Mrs. Don Gazier has replaced Mrs. Lew Ayers as librarian at the Dixon Public Library. Mrs. Flossie Nelson has succeeded Mrs. Lura Dahl as librarian in Scobey and Mrs. Mildred Johnson is now librarian in Wibaux replacing Mrs. D. L. Collins.

MONTANIANA: Two omissions were made in Montaniana in the September Newsletter. The title of the book by Margaret Jensen is Looking back. The publisher of Pastures in the sun is Tyler-Berkley Co., Amarillo, Texas.
Tough trip through paradise by Andrew Garcia. Houghton Mifflin Co. $6.95. An autobiography of Garcia, who came to Montana in 1876, and lived among the Indians, frontiersmen, traders and army personnel. The treeless plains by Glen Rounds. Holiday House. $3.75. A former Montanian, Mr. Rounds has written an account of early settlers of the Middle Border. Two leggings by Peter Nabokov. Thomas Y. Crowell Co. $6.95. An account of a Crow Indian's daily existence in the last century. American cattle trails east and west by Marion T. Place. Holt, Rinehart and Winston. $3.59. A juvenile describing the great routes over which herds of livestock were trailed in the pioneering days. Blazing forest trails by Charles D. Simpson and E. R. Jackman. Caxton Printers. $5.95. An account of the U.S. Forest Service in the Northwest. America's western frontiers by John A. Hawgood. Alfred A. Knopf. $10. A history of the explorers and settlers who opened up the American trans-Mississippi West.

FALL DATES TO NOTE

National Children's Book Week - October 29 - November 4

American Education Week - November 5 - 11

Live With Books

MONTANA NEWSLETTER

MONTANA STATE LIBRARY

930 EAST LYNDALE AVENUE TELEPHONE 442-3260, EXTENSION 304 HELENA, MONTANA 59601

Volume 2 November 1967 No. 7

BI-PARTISAN APPROVAL OF THE HOUSE was given to the Library Services and Construction Act when H.R. 13048, the bill to make certain technical amendments and to continue 100 percent Federal funding of Titles III and IV of this act for fiscal '68, passed the House by a vote of 351 to 0 on October 16th. A series of speeches on the floor praised the Act as a model of Federal, State and local coordination.

GERALDINE FENN, for many years 4-H and Other Youth Specialist at Montana State University, has retired. Her many friends throughout the State will be happy to know that she is doing youth counseling and still has an office on the campus.

THE OFFICIAL REPORT ON PHASE I of the Knapp School Libraries Project has been completed by Miss Peggy Sullivan, Director of this program. The 96-page, handsomely produced paperbound report can be purchased from the Publishing Department of the American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, Illinois for $4.00.

WANTED: A 1944 World Almanac. Anyone having one available please contact Mrs. Marie MacDonald, Librarian, Glendive Public Library, Glendive.

THE FOLLOWING STAFF CHANGES at the Montana State University Library have been announced by Director of Libraries, Miss Lesley M. Heathcote: Mrs. Marjorie Brister, formerly Serials Librarian has become Acquisitions Librarian; Miss Roberta J. Ward, formerly a member of the reference staff, is now Serials Librarian; John E. Roland, with degrees from Colorado State College and Louisiana State University, has succeeded Miss Ward on the reference staff; Mrs. Helen Dresen, previously school librarian at Cut Bank, is teaching the library science courses and working half time as reference librarian.

SUMMER WORKSHOP STUDENTS who are interested may obtain some good colored slides of Margaret Edwards from Muriel Cooksey, Children's Librarian, Miles City Public Library. They are 45¢ each.

A LIMITED NUMBER OF COPIES of Land Economics by Dr. Roland Renne are for sale at $5.00 each. These can be purchased on a first come first served basis and those interested should contact Miss Lesley Heathcote, Director of Libraries, Montana State University, Bozeman.

MONTANIANA: a map of early day ranches of Dawson County may be obtained from the Frontier Gateway Museum in Glendive or can be ordered by mail from the Gateway Press, 1500 River Avenue, Glendive for $1.00. Delinquency can be stopped by Judge Lester H. Loble and Max Wylie. McGraw-Hill Book Co. $4.95. Judge Loble, a Helena resident, describes his system of handling deliquents. The quest for social intelligence by Harold Tascher and associates. Community Relations Services, 715 Beverly Avenue, Missoula. $4.50. A collection of materials developed by the use of group methods applied to learning and teaching projects at the University of Montana from 1933 on in social welfare education. Lady in arms by Virginia Weisel Johnson. Houghton Mifflin Co. $4.50. The author, who now lives in Missoula, describes the adventures of an army wife. Even if I'm bad? by Reverend Orin D. Thompson and illustrated by William R. Johnson. Augsburg Publishing House, Minneapolis. $1.75. A collection of 49 children's sermons by the author, who is a pastor at the Central Lutheran Church in Minneapolis and was formerly pastor in Cut Bank. Glacier National Park edited by Robert Scharff with the cooperation of the National Park Service. David McKay Co., Inc. $3.95. A guidebook to the park with photographs and maps.

PB-3376-2-SB
513-19